

PRIVACY NOTICE PURSUANT TO ART. 13 OF THE REG. (EU) 2016/679 (“GDPR”) ON THE DATA PROCESSING RELATED TO PHOTO/VIDEO SHOOTING AND ONLINE SHARING

Veronafiere provides with the information concerning the processing of personal data and, in particular, of images of people attending specific events in which photos are then shared on an online platform.

1. Data controller

Data controller is Veronafiere S.p.A., Viale del Lavoro, 8, 37135 - Verona, tel. 045 8298111, email address info@veronafiere.it, PEC address mail@pec.veronafiere.it (hereinafter referred to as “Veronafiere” or “Controller”)

2. Data Protection Officer (DPO)

You can contact the DPO at the email address dpo@veronafiere.eu

3. Data processing purposes, legal basis and data retention

Image may be processed, as highlighted by special signs in loco, as Veronafiere (or third parties appointed by the latter) will take photos and film videos.

WHY IS PERSONAL DATA BEING PROCESSED?	WHAT IS THE BASIS THAT MAKES THE PROCESSING LAWFUL?	HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL DATA?
(1) To document - for archiving purposes - the event with photo/video shooting (which may incidentally include images of people participating in the event).	The legitimate interest pursued by the Controller, which – as assessed through the “balancing of interests” referred to in Art. 6.1, lett. f) GDPR – overrides the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject.	For 5 years. Except for extraordinary circumstances that justify its extension (for example relating to the public relevance of the event and/or the characters portrayed).
(2) To document – for commercial purposes - the event with photo/video shooting (which may incidentally include images of people participating in the event). This includes publication and dissemination through the Data Controller’s official communication channels, such as the institutional website and social media platforms (e.g., Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn).	The legitimate interest pursued by the Controller, which – as assessed through the “balancing of interests” referred to in Art. 6.1, lett. f) GDPR – overrides the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject.	For as long as necessary to achieve the purposes for which the data are processed, and, in any case, until data subject’s objection.
(3) To upload photos of the event on an online platform . Those photos will not be made public but will be accessible only to the people who attended the event and have been given the QR-Code (which will be available at the event) and that will register to the online platform. Every person will be able to access only the photos in which he or she is portrayed. For 6 months. Except for extraordinary circumstances that justify its extension.
(4) To identify the subject portrayed in the photos , in order to let him access only the photos in which he or she is portrayed via the online platform. The process is achieved through the voluntary creation of an account (username, valid email address and password) and the upload of a biometric template (face image) via the online platform, which allows	The consent of the Data Subject. Once such data retention period has expired, data will be destroyed or anonymized, compatibly with the technical timing for erasure and backup.

4. The provision of data

The processing of images is not mandatory. As set out in the event terms and conditions, visitors may object to the photo/video shooting by informing Veronafiery (also in the person of the operator in charge); this will not preclude the participation in the event.

5. Categories of recipients to whom data may be disclosed

Data may be disclosed to parties acting as Controllers (e.g. public authorities, professional firms) or processed, on behalf of Veronafiery, by third parties, appointed as Data Processors pursuant to art. 28 GDPR, such as companies providing security and surveillance services and/or facilities' maintenance services, subject in charge of photo/video shooting, the owner of the platform on which the images will be uploaded (Memento SAS).

Furthermore, data are processed by Veronafiery employees who have been expressly authorised to process such data for the above-mentioned purposes and have received adequate operating instructions.

6. Transfer of personal data to countries outside the European Union

Your Data may be transferred outside the European Union (e.g. within the Controller's collaboration with selected IT partners). If Data are transferred to countries outside the European Union (EU) or the European Economic Area (EEA) and which have not been deemed adequate by the European Commission, and whenever the transfer is not necessary for the performance of the contract, the "transfer tools " referred to in Article 46 of the GDPR will be adopted, with the possible provision of "additional measures" which ensure a level of protection substantially equivalent to that required by European Union law.

7. Data subjects' rights

Data subject shall have the following rights, as well as any right under GDPR:

- to access data concerning him/her in accordance with Article 15,
- to obtain the rectification of inaccurate data,
- to have incomplete data completed,
- to obtain the erasure of data in the cases provided for by Article 17,
- to obtain restriction of processing in the cases provided for by Article 18.

In order to exercise his/her rights, data subject can contact the Controller by sending a written communication to the address pointed out in par. 1 or an e-mail to privacy@veronafiery.it.

In any case, data subject shall have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority in the Member State of his or her habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement.
